Dubai, UAE, 14th September 2020: Mövenpick Hotel Apartments Downtown Dubai, a home considered by many is concocting a fun and deliciously infused weekend brunch that the whole family can revel as it launches its Friday Brunch with pool access starting October.

The hotel's main restaurant that offers a 24-hour dining service, Bien, will be donning a deliciously decorated brunch spread every Friday that will feature a variety of international favourites, healthy options such as the live salad station. For the meat lovers at heart, you can delve into a variety of roasts and live carving station whilst for the seafood lovers; an assortment of seafood options is available alongside sushi and fresh seafood catch that are ready for you to munch on!

The Friday brunch is not solely just great food meant to be shared, but memories that the whole family can enjoy as well. Little ones can relish a dedicated kids' corner that features a variety of options that can make their tummy pleased too. Kids, parents and nannies alike can also enjoy activities such as face painting, cooking sessions, henna and of course access to the pool to make the weekend extra special.
