

ZERO GRAVITY MAKES A HUGE NEW SEASON STATEMENT WITH AN UNRELENTING INTERNATIONAL LINE-UP, AND BRAND NEW SUPERNATURAL SATURDAYS

Zero Gravity is ready to reveal its biggest programme of events to date. Now approaching its third iconic autumn/winter season, Dubai's most-talked-about entertainment venue leads the masses back outside to its incredible poolside setting from September 22, while also taking Saturdays in a unique, new, underground direction – with the launch of SuperNatural.

From Thursday September 22, Zero Gravity's Velocity club nights return with two consecutive resident DJ parties – welcoming locally-lauded Greg Stainer, SoulNinja, Somn3um, Chris Metcalfe and Chris Wright, plus new season additions, Adam Aldous and XIIAM. Legendary beatboxer, multi-vocalist and musician Beardyman follows on Thursday October 6, as the first of many inimitable international artists, all set to explode on the Velocity stage [full schedule overleaf].

Day-to-night party Aurora is back with Journey Thru House on Friday September 23, when Graeme Park, Allister Whitehead and Rachel MacFarlane will take a sun-soaked crowd of thousands through 12 hours of dance floor-filling classics, paving the way for a huge list of head-turning Aurora acts. These include smash producer Jonas Blue on Friday October 14 and a three-hour set from Latin house legend Louie Vega, as the sun goes down on Friday October 28. [full schedule overleaf].

Lost Angels ladies' nights also go alfresco from Tuesday September 27. Zero Gravity's prettiest night of the week will take over the poolside from 8pm, and is open to ladies only until 10pm. Entrance is AED 100 and includes free-flowing premium drinks, kitsch cocktails, gourmet canapés and a fabulous full-on party vibe through to midnight. Guys can eat, drink and be merry in the surrounding Zero Gravity garden, bars and restaurant, before joining the Lost Angels ladies at 10pm.

From Friday September 30, Zero Gravity will reignite The Onshore Social, from 3pm to 6pm. At this later-starting, lively brunch, Zero Gravity showcases its most exciting international dishes, served on sharing-perfect platters and from interactive cooking and cocktail stations, alongside weekend-perfect music and entertainment. The Onshore Social standard package is charged at AED 395 per person, including all food and beverages, with an option to upgrade to unlimited Veuve Cliquot bubbles at a cost of AED 666 per person. Prices also include entry to Aurora.

Saturday October 1 marks the start of SuperNatural. Set to stamp Saturdays with a very different Zero Gravity identity, SuperNatural gives a platform to the industry's underground, emerging, 'in-the-know' DJs, with a focus on electronic/tech house music. A day-to-night 'voyage' of artistic entertainment, SuperNatural takes inspiration from the world's most musically-intense, tribal and theatrical festivals. The concept aims to fuse the edge, passion and education of the Boiler Room revolution, with the idyllic beach-side setting that makes Zero Gravity jump so far off the map.

SuperNatural builds from midday, beginning with a meticulously-crafted soundtrack from Zero Gravity's portfolio of diverse resident DJs, and leading into an unmissable pre-sunset headline set from 5pm. Hypnotic French DJ/producer Sébastien Léger will pioneer the SuperNatural concept on Saturday October 1, before a rotation of stand-out international recruits, including thriving UK female duo Eli & Fur, Technasia from Paris and Spanish stalwart Cristian Varela [full schedule overleaf].

SuperNatural takes place every Saturday at Zero Gravity from October 1. The event is free to enter, all day and night. Zero Gravity's normal beach/pool pass pricing applies from 8am to 4.30pm and loungers, day beds and tables can be booked in advance, based on a minimum spend structure.

INFO: Entrance to Zero Gravity's Velocity (Thursday) and Aurora (Friday) is free before 10pm for guys, free before midnight for ladies and AED 100 thereafter. Entrance to SuperNatural (Saturday) is free throughout. Entrance fees for special events are subject to change.
